THE AMERICAN TODAY

• On April 7, the American Athletic Conference announced that Wichita State University will join the league for the 2017-18 academic year. In 2017, the Shockers clinched their sixth-straight NCAA Tournament bid and advanced to the Round of 32 for a fifth consecutive year.

• Four American Athletic Conference teams reached the 2017 postseason. Competing in its seventh straight NCAA Tournament, Cincinnati reached the Round of 32, while SMU bowed out in the first round. UCF was an NIT semifinalist, while Houston was a No. 2 seed in the tournament.

• USF introduced Brian Gregory as its head coach on March 14. Gregory owns six postseason appearances, including two NCAA Tournament berths. Gregory is 248-180 in stints at Dayton and Georgia Tech.

• UCF's three NIT wins were its first in program history. The Knights' 12-win improvement from 2015-16 (12-18) to 2016-17 (24-12) tied for the sixth-best in the nation.

• SMU's Semi Ojeleye and UCF's Tacko Fall both declared for the NBA Draft but have not retained agents, making both eligible to return to their programs. Ojeleye was The American Player of the Year, while Fall was the conference's Defensive Player of the Year. Both have until the early-entry deadline of May 24 to decide on their futures.

• UCF's Matt Williams wrapped his single-season American record for three-pointers with 131 after hitting three against TCU. Williams broke the mark of 96, set by Houston's Jherrod Stiggers, on Feb. 18. Houston's Damyean Dotson finished his season with 108, second-most in conference history.

• With the addition of Wichita State, The American boasts three programs that finished the season with 30 or more wins. Both SMU and Cincinnati recorded 30 victories this season.

• #12/15 SMU captured its second American men's basketball championship in the last three years, using a stifling defense to defeat #15/18 Cincinnati, 71-56.

• In addition to being named American Player and Scholar-Athlete of the Year, SMU's Semi Ojeleye was named to second team Academic All-America, CoSIDA announced.

• SMU's Tim Jankovich was named a semifinalist for the Naismith Coach of the Year Award. Jankovich, in his first season as head coach, led the Mustangs to a 30-5 mark - the best by a head coach in his first year with a team this season.

WuShock

Wichita State formally enters The American on July 1, 2017.

The Shockers are one of just five schools that have won a game in each of the last five NCAA Tournaments, joining North Carolina, Kansas, Oregon and Gonzaga.

Going back to their Final Four season in 2012-13, the Shockers' 152 wins and .840 winning percentage are second only to Gonzaga.

Wichita State's four 30-win seasons over that five-year stretch is the most of any team in college hoops -- matched just five other times in NCAA history.

The Shockers' string of eight consecutive 25-win seasons is one of Division I's five-longest active streaks. Kansas (12), Gonzaga (10), Duke (10) and VCU (8) are also on the list.

Landry Shamet is just the fourth freshman in MVC history to be named first team all-conference, joining Creighton's Doug McDermott (2011), Wichita's Cleo Littleton (1952), and Tulsa's Vernon Yates (1942).

Shamet is only the fourth Shocker to earn an All-MVC nod as a freshman. The other three --- Littleton (a 1st-teamer in 1952), Antoine Carr (2nd team, 1980) and Cliff Levingston (2nd team, 1980) --- all have their jersey numbers hanging from the rafters.
